

POST TEST FOR MODULE 9

1. True or false: An IM provider does not need to have good IM skills in order to run a group IM session.
2. True or false: During IM groups it is best practice to have each student wear headphones.
3. True or false: In order to offer IM groups multiple IM units are required
4. True or false: It is important for IM providers to be familiar with the signs and symptoms of sensory overload during IM activities.
5. True or false: Offering Group IM programs can increase access of IM training to a broader clinical, educational and performance clientele.