

"Using Interactive Metronome® in a non-traditional manner with infants through preschool aged children with moderate to severe developmental delays has been so inspiring! It has been the catalyst that many of our children needed in order to readily initiate play and social interaction, improve coordination, self-regulate and improve communication. Interactive metronome® has provided us with a creative avenue to facilitate progress in many children with severe physical and cognitive challenges who previously had very limited functional gains."

Amy Kampschroeder, OTR/L
Easter Seals UCP, Wilmington, NC

